LOCATION

The place is very quiet as it has few neighbors and still retains the seafaring flavor it had years ago, when the residents of Sa Marina went to sea with their boats to fill the nets and sell the fish to the fish market of Alcudia. From there you can make several excursions on foot or by bicycle, such as walking along the coast of Cap del Pinar, reach the Albufereta de Pollença or visit the medieval town of Alcudia with its imposing walls. It is a perfect place to get to know the north of Mallorca with beautiful places such as Formentor and the beautiful coves around it, the great beach of Alcudia and the beautiful villages of Alcudia and Pollença.
