

VILLA LLUBI

VILLA LLUBI

The interior design of this villa is a dreamy mix of natural materials, concrete floors, rich textiles, touches of color and exotic Moroccan-inspired accessories. The large open kitchen, living room and dining room have floor-to-ceiling windows leading to the shaded porch that surrounds the main house with its walnut wood flooring and hanging seaweed lights. It is furnished with comfortable armchairs, low tables, floor cushions and lanterns, making it the perfect chill out area.

Outside, for outdoor dining there is a barbecue area and a fire pit with the dining table situated under a wooden pergola with hanging lamps and surrounded by aromatic plants. The extensive estate has meadows for horses, a yoga platform for your sun salutations and a petanque court, beehives, olive groves, citrus orchards, medicinal and aromatic plantations and an organic vegetable garden where you can enjoy fresh vegetables and herbs picked daily. The 9m x 3.5m freshwater pool is lined with green Moroccan tiles and surrounded by sun loungers with cane umbrellas, perfect for poolside shade.

There are three double bedrooms in the main house, each with a king size bed with handcrafted headboards and en-suite bathrooms with showers. In the annex is the master bedroom with a sofa bed and spacious bathroom with free standing bathtub, vanity and two sinks.

Upon request, the estate is available for weddings, events, film productions and fashion shoots.
